

Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System (FDLRS)

FDLRS Island Coast serves Lee and Collier Counties. There are 19 FDLRS centers throughout Florida.

FDLRS has four function areas

CHILD FIND

Referrals entered into the Children's Registry and Information System

Developmental screenings for 3-5 year olds

Workshops for child care providers

Collaboration with community agencies

PARENT SERVICES

Workshops for parents

Support for the development of family friendly schools

Support and mentoring parent leaders

Collaboration with community agencies

HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

Inservices for teachers and paraeducators

Sharing information about new materials

Support for the development of effective online professional development

Support for low performing schools

TECHNOLOGY

Workshops for teachers and parents about using assistive technology and software

Technical assistance for teachers

Support for the development of effective online professional development

Development of programs for the use of digital text